

Black History Month Resources

Rutgers Oral History Archives

Featured Oral Histories

Walter G. Alexander II, Rutgers Engineering '43

Patricia Graham, Livingston College '72

Visit the African American Oral History Collection here

Educator Resources

To browse the collection of interviews, visit the ROHA website.

For students and educators, visit the ROHA Digital Learning Center, which offers curated interview lists perfect for educators exploring various topics in history.

Learn how to browse the ROHA collection by watching a short video tutorial.

Featured Podcasts

Women in the Mississippi Freedom Movement

Pamela Walker discusses her research into the Box Project and race, gender and political participation in 1960s-era social movements.

Breaking the Silence

Caitlin Wiesner analyzes the role of African American women in the feminist movement against sexual violence from 1974 to 1994.

Spotlight on Harvey Grimsley

Harvey Grimsley was a World War II veteran, Rutgers Athletic Hall of Famer, and leading scorer during his football career in the late 1940s at Rutgers.

Connect with ROHA @RUOralHistory

RUTGERS
School of Arts and Sciences