HEART THROS DEPARTMENT

Dear Barefoots: Dear Lipsincott Stoneifer received her last copy of the Bulletin, she religious Last month there was hardly a new, but this time its gonna be different wo we'll ignore April Fools Day and the paper shortage. (We didnt like our plan last month-too confusing). By the way, our own Mrs. Reamer is a grandmother now so she wont care what we do. Its a girl. Here we go!

WHO GOT HOME DEPARTMENT

Harry Davey had quite a furlough in March. Came home without a coat cause the calendar said it was spring, but it snowed and blowed and poor Harry had to wear a civilian coat. So he dodged M.P.'s night and day! Later he went to Bucknell to see his gal and a picture post card said tersely, "Just spent the three best days of my life." Dija ask her, Harry?

Red Lippincott was home for a few hours? He is stationed at Brooklyn Navy Yard, mu much to his surprise and our delight. Seems they put him on guard duty out in California with "Bink" - a 100 pound Doberman veteran of the Pacific. No kiddin' the dog outranked Red! There was a dilemma-so here he is looking swell again. Quite by accident we met up with him in Penn. Station and the M.P.'s had to break oup the greeting. But later on 89 West Front Street looked like a pop corn popper full of Lippincotts! Lippincotts!

Schwartz, Davey, and Rullman had a little bull session for the first time in over a year. Mostly they relived the famous boat trips to Washington and Annapolis. And listen, Arnold, whats this we hear about your new technic? A secretary we know in Washington wrote home that "the nicest sailor dropped his hat in my lap in a restaurant." That's a new one!

Ensign George Shoemaker is home after bombing Truk. He has been with Butch O'Hare's outfit, and it seems George specializes in getting home with his tail shot off. But this time it was different. Little Silver really rolled down the red carpet.

Donald Wingerter is home before going on to Macon, Ga. Zale blew in from Fort Dix-where he went after A.S.T.P. collapsed And Augie gets home now and then-mostly then.

Henry Hagerman was sent home from England to enter O.C.S.

Brub has came, saw, and conquered England by this time. He has written home for chocolate bars and a few odd things, but doesnt kick about anything-being a good Hance. Henry Pope has had a swell raise and promotion and gone to Chicago to live. Same firm. Dont forget to come back home from the windy city - and we DO mean windy, what with both political parties meeting there soon. WOW!

Tommy Dean reports that he is on his way and has grown a villainous black mustache and goatee. For heavens sake! Monty Woolley will be all upset.

Eddie Schwartz has debarked at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., and took a hand at store keeping to get out of drill. Bet the Gobs looked sharp when he fitted thme out in those two sizes too big and too small notife yang . Jasef Jon Jod , Jasef the Plaza not long ago.

Bob Davey lost all his belongings in the fire, singed his hair off, the A.S.T. folded up the next day, and he had to pay his income tax - all in the same week. Speaking of the A.S.T.P., it is the WHIFF as far as we are concerned. Entirely too many Barefoots found themselves out in the cold through no fault of their own. And, brother, it just dont make sense to stop that kind of training in the middle.

If Sig Keeps on HE will get to be our favorite General! He is a Captain new, and when last heard from had only one more mission to go - and then back home we hope. We remember saying to our offspring, "Dont let us catch you flying in some old crate with that wild Thompson Boy."

When Joan Lippincott Stonsifer received her last copy of the Bulletin, she fell into a nostalgic mood and wrote thusly: "Ask Brub and the rest of the Barefoots if they remember "Rosalie" and how we all sang it at dancing clubs in honor of Brub when he had pneumonia?" Ah, yes ... Brub and Susie Q. fairly swooned on the down beat. We remember them cavorting at the Molly Pitcher and the M.B.C. Christmas dances.

It is reported that Nancy Barnes has given her heart to Dave Boffey of the Merchant Marine, and of Yale, '42. Dave is one swell guy - all six foot seven of him - and he had a heck of a time getting in service because of his height. Normally he is a Gentleman of the Press. In fact, he still is for the Standard carries a great story today about Dave's ship being torpedoed in the Indian Ocean.

Pat Dillon's wedding had to be postponed at the eleventh hour when the groom's orders were changed and he was sent to Camp Hood, Texas. So Pat, her mother, her grand-parents, and the beautiful wedding dress took off for Texas a few days later.

Marg Morton is now a trim little office murse for Dr. Sacco - the eye, ear, nose and throat man on Broad Street. When the news gets around, there will be lots more sore throats for the doc! Marg is kinda lonely without Zale week ends so she wants to keep busy.

Nancy Barnes is secretary-treasurer for her dorm at Skidmore College, and Harriet, who is still in Washington, was home a few days. Good looking WAVE, too. The blondes are pretty snappy in the Navy uniform. (Editors note: Asay's girl is a blond).

Bunny Dillon fell off a horse at college, but managed to keep a date at Annapolis with her back in a vise and two left feet. Bunny is all set for a trip to Mexico this summer in the interest of cotton sport clothes.

Jack Warren and Johnny Boyd met up in Columbia, S.C. recently. Had quite an outing. Johnny is getting his crew together at long last, for he is impatient to get over. Jack Warren had a blind date with the cream of the WACS at Oglethorpe and M.K. says he put her on the train much too early in his haste to see his date. We saw M.K. in a SOLID new pink coat (why pink, we don't know-it looks tan to us) and she is on her way to Washington. Never looked better!
